25 June 2012

Massive raids against trade union offices, detention of 71 union members and leaders

Prime Minister,

The International Trade Union Confederation (ITUC), which represents more than 175 million workers through its 308 affiliates in 153 countries and territories, including Turkey, is writing to you to protest, in the strongest possible terms, against the massive full-scale attacks against a wide range of trade union organisations which have taken place this morning in around 20 cities in the whole of Turkey. In these attacks, union offices as well as houses of trade union leaders were raided and searched, sometimes causing damage, and no less than 71 trade union members and leaders were detained.

According to our information, the police raided the offices of the ITUC-affiliated Confederation of Public Sector Workers' Unions (KESK) in the early hours of today, Monday 25 June 2012. Simultaneously, the headquarters of a number of KESK-affiliated unions, such as BTS, Tarım Orkam-Sen, Eğitim-Sen (also affiliated to Education International, EI), SES, Tüm Bel-Sen and BES (also affiliated to Public Sector Workers' International, PSI), ESM (also affiliated to the International Federation of Chemical Energy, Mine & General Workers' Unions, ICEM), Haber-Sen (also affiliated to Union Network International, UNI), as well as trade union branch offices and houses of trade unionists, were raided in a number of provinces including Istanbul, Ankara, Diyarbakır, Ağrı, Bitlis, Siirt, Adana and Eskişehir.

Those detained, and the numbers amount to a staggering 71 in total, include Mehmet Bozgeyik, General Secretary of Eğitim-Sen; Sakine Eren Yılmaz, Gender Secretary of Eğitim-Sen; Mehmet Sıddık Akın, General Secretary of SES; Metin Vuranok, President of Tarım Orkam-Sen; Seyran Şık, Gender Secretary of Haber-Sen; Yunus Akıl, former BTS President; Emel Emre, Gender Secretary of ESM; Sakine Esen Yılmaz, Eğitim Sen's Women's Secretary; Abdullah Karahan, Eğitim Sen's Secretary of Financial Affairs; Veysel Özhekti, Secretary of BTS' Diyarbakır branch office; and the BTS' International Affairs Officer Osman İşçi. The entire list of people whom we know have been detained by your police is attached to this letter.

Mr. Prime Minister, the list of acts of intimidation and harassment by your authorities against trade unions and their leaders and members is a terribly long one. We understand the pretext of this large-scale attack was an operation against an illegal terrorist organisation, as it has been on countless occasions during the years under the rule of your Justice and Development Party (AKP). One of the sad highlights of the disgraceful misuse of your country's anti-terrorism laws was the sentencing, on 28 October last year, of 25 Egitim Sen members to six years and five months imprisonment by the Izmir Criminal Court. The "evidence" against them included possession of books that can be found in any bookstore in Turkey, and the holding of union meetings. Owing to the lack of evidence, it had appeared that the defendants were going to be acquitted, until two of the judges were summarily removed from the trial just before the final hearing. Even the Chief Justice was in favour of an acquittal. KESK subsequently lodged an appeal against the Criminal Court decision.

So far, the first link between Turkey's trade unions and any real or perceived terrorist organisation has yet to be found; however, your authorities leave no opportunity untapped to refer to such an alleged link as an excuse for whichever repressive measure they feel like taking at any given moment.

The abuse of the legal system to undermine trade union rights is a very serious infringement of Convention 87 on Freedom of Association, which your country has ratified. Actually, this kind of judicial harassment is usually found among the worst offenders of trade union rights, such as Zimbabwe and Swaziland. It is one of the main reasons that your country has to defend its case, year after year, in the Committee on the Application of Standards (CAS) at the annual conference of the International Labour Organisation (ILO) in Geneva.

The ITUC condemns these ant-union harassment tactics in the strongest possible terms and urges your government to immediately and unconditionally release all 71 detained trade unionists, including all those listed hereunder. We will not hesitate to take further steps in order to make sure that Turkey respects the provisions contained in Convention 87, and the trade union rights enshrined therein.

Yours sincerely,

General Secretary
