

Workshop. May 11 – 12, 2010. IGM Bildungsstätte Pichelssee, Berlin

Accountability and Voice in Global Production Networks

Date	Program	Speakers / Group Leaders
11.05.2010
9:30 – 12:30 with coffee break	Opening Session: Global Production Networks: Challenges for Trade Union Strategies	Local &amp; Global Perspectives: Group sessions with Marion Hellmann, Philip Bowyer, Jim Baker, Doug Miller, Frank Hoffer
14:00 – 15:00	Introduction in plenary - Workers' Voice in GPN:	Doug Miller, Northumbria University, former research director, ITGLWF
15:15 – 17:30	Parallel working groups with student input:
	WG1: UNI strategy for Global Agreements in private services	Philip Bowyer, UNI
	WG2: BWI strategy for regulating labor standards at World Bank / IFC construction sites	Marion Hellmann, BWI

Date	Program	Speakers / Group Leaders
12.05.2010
9:30 – 10:00	Introduction in plenary
10:15 – 12:00	Parallel working groups with student input:
	WG1: Employee Voice across borders: Freundeberg KG	Bernd Schneider, Freundenberg works council
	WG2: Employee Voice across borders: World Employee Committee at the Daimler AG	Thomas Metz, Daimler works council
13:00	Introduction in plenary – campaigns:	Dr. Thomas Greven, FU Berlin
13:15 – 16:00	WG1: Unions in Transnational Corporations in South Africa.	Peter Senft, IG Metall
	WG2: Organizing in Germany – an international/global dimension?	Sören Niemann-Findeisen, IG Metall
16:30 – 18:00	Final Session: Accountability and Voice revisited	Dr. Michael Fichter FU Berlin Dr. Thomas Greven FU Berlin Students